savills

SAVILLS VIRTUAL EASTER EGG HUNT

CLUE 1
These homes in Naas are newly built, you will find your egg on bedroom number two's quilt!

CLUE 2
These new houses are in Ballincollig, with Cork nearby, the first picture of the home is outside a bright blue sky. You'll find your egg in the room you use to cook, just make sure to have a long hard look.

CLUE 3
This office building is 76 on a Dublin city quay, and is hiding your egg that's not hard to see.
From the roof terrace you have a waterfront view, and there is where you will find one egg, not two!

CLUE 4
This country home in Meath is part of a big estate, with horses and games rooms, we think it is great! The egg is hidden in the room with the books... so make sure and check all those crannies and nooks!

CLUE 5
At this new home scheme in Blackrock, location is key – these restored apartments and new built houses are close to the sea. You'll find this next egg for you to keep, in the most important room – the one where kids sleep!

CLUE 6
This egg can be seen outside this large shopping centre - you'll see it from Henry Street, right where you enter!

CLUE 7
Right by the airport is this egg's new spot, and for logistics space, this place has the lot.
First place to look is outside of a park, but you better look now before it gets too dark.

CLUE 8
A new homes development in Cork fit for a King or a Queen, the egg you want is the place where you dream.

CLUE 9
This office in Cork can be found at 14, when you get to reception that's where your egg can be seen. Right on South Mall, the location is amazing – the perfect spot for some Easter egg grazing!

CLUE 10
This prize won't be in a property, location or sector, but in a service page is where you'll become this egg's collector! The service is sustainable, renewable, environmentally friendly and green... so head to that page for the egg to be seen.

CLUE 11
Stay on the services page, you're nearly there – the next egg is hidden in construction care Building, managing, costing and designing, the service guarding your egg is really shining!

CLUE 12
This is a hard one, so let's get it done! In a sector is where this egg ended its run. Flexible space, sharing an office, or short-term business needs – that's where the clue for this egg leads!

CLUE 13
It's not just services and properties on our site – we post news too, to keep the information right. On the news page the fifth thing you will see... is the egg hiding in an article about our new MD!

CLUE 14
This service is one where you stay as a treat, to sleep, relax, have fun and even eat. A place for holidays, meetings and overnight stays... this page is one where we'd like to spend more of our days!

CLUE 15
The final egg you seek is in Dublin south county, in an office building you will find the last of your bounty. The egg hides in a square, not far from the sea... with views of the harbour, it's a great place to be!